James Hardie update on conditions precedent to implementation of Proposal to change domicile

In advance of the 21 August 2009 Extraordinary General Meeting to consider Stage 1 of the Proposal to transform James Hardie into a Societas Europaea (SE), and then move its corporate domicile from The Netherlands to Ireland (Stage 2), James Hardie provides the following update on regulatory and other matters relating to the Proposal.

Confirmation of asbestos arrangements by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO)

The ATO has provided James Hardie and the Asbestos Injuries Compensation Fund (AICF) with private binding rulings to replace those previously issued in connection with the Amended and Restated Final Funding Agreement (AFFA) and has confirmed that the accepted tax conditions defined in the AFFA will remain unchanged in all material respects after the Proposal is implemented.

The company had undertaken in the AFFA Deed of Confirmation entered into with the NSW Government and the AICF that it would not complete the merger with the Irish plc subsidiary necessary to facilitate the transformation to Dutch SE before obtaining the ATO rulings. Following obtaining the ATO rulings, as outlined above, the company is now released from this undertaking.

Expiry of Creditor Opposition Period

Under Dutch law, there was a one-month period during which creditors or the Dutch Ministry of Justice could file objections to the merger of the company with the Irish plc subsidiary. The one-month period has now expired and no objections were lodged during the period.

Other Matters

The company continues to pursue satisfaction of the remaining regulatory and other matters necessary to implement the Proposal.

Extraordinary General Meeting

An Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at 11.00 am CET on Friday, 21 August 2009 to consider Stage 1 of the Proposal. An Extraordinary Information Meeting will be held in Sydney at 11.30am AEST on Tuesday, 18 August 2009.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements and all such forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the following cautionary statements.

Forward-looking statements are based on our estimates and assumptions and because forward-looking statements address future results, events and conditions, they, by their very nature, involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Such known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause our actual results, performance or other achievements to differ materially from the anticipated results, performance or achievements expressed, projected or implied by these forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance. These factors, some of which are discussed under Risk Factors in James Hardie's Registration Statement (described below under the heading "Additional information and where to find it") include but are not limited to:

- all matters relating to or arising out of the prior manufacture of products that contained asbestos by our current and former subsidiaries;
- required contributions to the Asbestos Injuries Compensation Fund and the effect of currency exchange rate movements on the amount recorded in our financial statements as an asbestos liability; compliance with and changes in tax laws and treatments;
- competition and product pricing in the markets in which we operate;

- the consequences of product failures or defects; exposure to environmental, asbestos or other legal proceedings;
- general economic and market conditions;
- the supply and cost of raw materials;
- the success of research and development efforts;
- reliance on a small number of customers; a customer's inability to pay; compliance with and changes in environmental and health and safety laws;
- risks of conducting business internationally; compliance with and changes in laws and regulations;
- currency exchange risks;
- the concentration of our customer base on large format retail customers, distributors and dealers;
- the effect of natural disasters;
- changes in our key management personnel;
- Inherent limitations on internal controls; use of accounting estimates;
- and all other risks identified in our reports filed with Australian, Dutch and US securities agencies and exchanges (as appropriate).

We caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive and that other risks and uncertainties may cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and are statements of our current expectations concerning future results, events and conditions and James Hardie does not undertake to update forward-looking statements.

Additional information and where to find it

In connection with the Proposal, James Hardie has lodged with Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) a Registration Statement on Form F-4 with additional information concerning the Proposal, including an Explanatory Memorandum/prospectus. The Registration Statement has been declared effective by the SEC.

While there is no new issue of securities involved in the Proposal under Australian law, under the US federal securities law James Hardie Industries SE is treated as a new registrant and the Explanatory Memorandum constitutes a prospectus for the purposes of US federal securities law. The Explanatory Memorandum is not a prospectus for the purposes of Australia's Corporations Act, 2001. Accordingly, it does not contain all of the information that would be required to be contained in an Australian prospectus and has not been, and will not be, lodged with the ASIC.

Investors and security holders of James Hardie are urged to read the Explanatory Memorandum forming part of the Registration Statement and any amendments, as well as any other relevant documents lodged or filed with the ASX or SEC as they become available because they contain and will contain important information about James Hardie and the Proposal. The Registration Statement, James Hardie's Annual Report on Form 20-F and James Hardie's subsequent reports filed with or furnished to the SEC and other relevant materials (when they become available) may be read and copied at the SEC's public reference room located at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. Information on the operation of the Public Reference Rooms may be obtained by calling the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330. The SEC also maintains a website, www.sec.gov, from which any electronic filings made by James Hardie may be obtained without charge. In addition, investors and security holders may obtain copies of the documents filed with or furnished to the SEC upon oral or written request without charge. Requests may be made by calling the Information Helpline in Australia at 1800 675 021 (between 8.00am and 5.00pm AEST) or elsewhere in the world at +1-949-367-4900 (between 8.00am and 5.00pm US Central Time) or in writing by regular and electronic mail at the following address: James Hardie Industries NV, Atrium, 8th Floor, Strawinskylaan 3077, 1077 ZX Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Attention: Company Secretary; email: info@jameshardie.com.

All material documents filed with the SEC will also be lodged with the ASX and posted on the James Hardie Investor Relations website (www.jameshardie.com, select James Hardie Investor Relations).

Participants in the solicitation

James Hardie and its executive officers and directors may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of James Hardie in connection with the Proposal. Information about the executive officers and directors of James Hardie and their ownership of James Hardie common stock is set out in the Explanatory Memorandum forming part of the Registration Statement.
