James Hardie files draft Explanatory Memorandum for Stage 2 of re-domicile Proposal

James Hardie Industries SE (James Hardie) today announced that it has filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) a Registration Statement on Form F-4 including a draft Explanatory Memorandum outlining Stage 2 of its previously announced two-stage plan (the Proposal) to transform to a Societas Europaea company and move its corporate domicile from The Netherlands to Ireland.

Following SEC review of the Registration Statement and formal Board approval of the change in corporate domicile, James Hardie will file the final Explanatory Memorandum with the ASX and the SEC and hold an Extraordinary General Meeting to seek shareholder approval to implement Stage 2 of the Proposal. The Extraordinary General Meeting currently is expected to be held in June 2010. The final Explanatory Memorandum mailed to shareholders will be amended from the draft document filed today. It will include the dates and times of the proposed Extraordinary General Meeting to be held in Amsterdam and the Extraordinary Information Meeting to be held in Sydney.

If shareholders approve Stage 2, the move to Ireland is expected to be completed early in the second half of 2010. Approval of Stage 2 will result in James Hardie becoming subject to Irish law in addition to the SE Regulation.

The draft Stage 2 Explanatory Memorandum is available now in the Investor Relations area of the company's website ( www.jameshardie.com).

James Hardie shareholders approved Stage 1 of the Proposal on 21 August 2009, with over 99% of votes cast at an Extraordinary General Meeting being in favour of the resolution. James Hardie completed Stage 1 of the Proposal and transformed from a public limited liability corporation registered in The Netherlands (Naamloze Vennootschap (NV)) to a European Company (Societas Europaea (SE)) registered in The Netherlands on 19 February 2010.
